I am combining 20+ years of experience in Clinical Development/Medical Affairs with modern-day business process management to build and strengthen effective quality- and risk management systems and procedures, to organize and improve efficient internal review and medical governance mechanisms, and by that help to maintain and improve the quality of patient care. I am a results-oriented, self-organized, and problem-solving team player with a keen eye for detail, leveraging strategic and analytical thinking to deliver complex information clearly to wide range of audiences and business units.
